

Edmonton John Howard Society

Edmonton John Howard Society is a non-profit, community based crime prevention agency serving Edmonton since 1949. Through our programs and services, we work to prevent crime and to help people affected by crime.

We Believe...

That every individual has intrinsic worth and has the right to be treated with dignity and respect.

In the potential of all human beings and in their capacity for growth and change.

That all individuals have the right to live in a safe and peaceful society and that justice is best served through measures that resolve conflict and restore harmony.

That individuals are responsible for their own actions and must be held accountable for those actions.

That the root causes of crime are found within communities and that the solutions to crime are also found in communities.

In serving community needs by cooperating and collaborating to achieve a healthy and safe society.

We appreciate the contributions of our funders, supporters and members.

SAFETY & HARMONY IN OUR COMMUNITY

Our Program...

- Provides service to adult males on release in the community under authority of the National Parole Board and Alberta Justice and Solicitor General.
- Offers a 24-bed, community based, residential special needs treatment facility.
- Serves individuals who have been deemed a higher risk, higher need or who have various psychiatric diagnosis, physical disabilities and brain injuries.
- Requires referrals from institutional and community based parole officers. 101 Street Apartments conducts a formal file review to determine a suitable Reintegration Plan.
- Determines reintegration plan by reviewing the individual's attitude and release plan, completed programming, willingness and availability of treatment within the community and a risk/needs assessment.
- Works in collaboration with the resident's Parole Officer to develop and implement a case plan.

- Completes crime cycle development with all residents.
- Seeks to protect the community by providing supervision and support to residents who are on community release.

Our Services...

The staff work with the residents in order to help facilitate a successful transition from the prison system into the community.

We offer:

- Shelter and food to all residents;
- Skilled caseworkers;
- Registered nurse and on-site clinic;
- Referrals to Edmonton John Howard Society's intake and employment services.

In-Reach Caseworker

- Works to identify hard-to-place clients and reach out to these individuals through institutional visits and phone calls.

- Collaborates with the case management team in order to provide additional support and increase the likelihood of reintegration success.
- The In-Reach Caseworker is available to meet with residents at both 101 Street Apartments and Independence Apartments.
- Designed to meet the initial and ongoing psychiatric and medical need of clients with multiple barriers.

Community Assessment And Parole Supervision (CAPS)

- Interviews are conducted with families and friends of offenders to assess the degree of support they are willing to offer both during and after incarceration
- Provides supervision during Unescorted Temporary Absences (UTA's).
