

Volunteer Opportunity Board of Directors

Edmonton John Howard Society (EJHS) is a CARF accredited community-based crime prevention organization that has been operating in Edmonton since 1949. Through our programs and services, we work to prevent crime and to help people affected by crime.

We are seeking volunteer Board members to join our existing governance board. We are a values-driven organization supporting individuals from a strength-based approach. If your values align with our core values, please consider joining our Board.

The EJHS Board of Directors governs with an emphasis on:

- encouragement of diversity in viewpoints
- strategic leadership rather than operational detail
- clear distinction of Board and chief executive roles
- collective rather than individual decisions
- focus on long term vision
- proactivity rather than reactivity

Edmonton John Howard Society Board is especially interested in individuals who:

- value and are committed to diversity of perspectives, including walking in a good way with Indigenous communities
- are technology-fluent with expertise in how technology influences strategy and decision making
- have expertise in education and learning, specifically in the areas of policing, corrections and justice

Time Commitments:

- Board meetings are every second month (approximately 2.5 hours)
- Board member retreat every 2 years.
- Agency events according to member interest.
- Sub-Committee work based on member skills and interest.

To apply, please submit a résumé and cover letter to info@johnhoward.org by May 6, 2022.

Please include Volunteer Board Member in the subject line of the email.

Safety and harmony in our community

Edmonton John Howard Society is committed to achieving a diverse workforce and strongly encourages applications from people of Indigenous heritage and people from culturally diverse backgrounds
