

Volunteer Board Member

We're seeking new voices to join the EJHS board to guide our work and inspire transformation in the non-profit sector and community safety space.

For over 70 years, EJHS has been rooted in community safety. We offer individuals and families a chance to heal and reintegrate into the community from justice and related systems. Our vision is safety and harmony in the community and we achieve this by providing a holistic client experience through intensive case management and wrap around supports.

This is an exciting time at Edmonton John Howard as we embark on a new strategic direction and align our structure and culture to achieve our strategic direction. We are seeking board members in the areas of finance, business strategy and community services. If you are passionate about governance and community impact, we would like to hear from you!

The EJHS Board of Directors governs with an emphasis on:

- diversity of viewpoints
- strategic leadership and governance
- collective decision making
- generative discussions and learning

Edmonton John Howard Society Board is especially interested in individuals who:

- value and are committed to diversity of perspectives, including walking in a good way with Indigenous communities
- are fluent in the execution of strategy
- have expertise in finance
- have knowledge of and experience within the community sector space, including justice, homelessness, mental health, etc.

Time Commitments:

- Board meetings are every second month (approximately 3 hours)
- Board member retreat ever 2 years
- Agency events according to member interest
- Committee work based on member skills and interest

To apply, please submit a résumé and cover letter to info@johnhoward.org by May 18, 2022.

Please include Volunteer Board Member in the subject line of the email.

Safety and harmony in our community

Edmonton John Howard Society is committed to achieving a diverse workforce and strongly encourages applications from people of Indigenous heritage and people from culturally diverse backgrounds
